

Introducing Reimbursements on mobile

Starting from $5 per employee per month.

Reimburse your team in minutes

Say goodbye to lost receipts or complex claim processes. Now your team can upload their receipt and submit a reimbursement request straight from their phone.

Get your team up and running with Reimbursements in 3 easy steps

1

Add your occasional spenders to Weel and select 'reimbursements' as their payment type.

2

Ask your team to download the free Weel app and add their bank account details.

3

Watch as your team submits their out-of-pocket expense claims straight from the app.

No more cash-flow surprises

When your team can make claims on the go, you can say goodbye to quarterly receipt dumps. Automatically deposit funds as soon as a request is approved, so your cash position is always up to date.

A better employee experience

Remove frustrating expense claim roadblocks for your team and reimburse out-of-pocket expenses in record time. It's the easiest way to get in your team's good books.
